

How does Gaggle review content from social media sites?

Created by Corey Tutewiler

Last updated Jul 18, 2016

Gaggle Safety Representatives review all content from outside social networks, because this provides a greater opportunity to protect students. In the past, a number of significant Possible Student Situations (PSS) have been detected because of email notifications that came in from services, such as Facebook and Twitter.

No labels